

THE PIG - in the Cotswolds

Barnsley | Cirencester

About

Tucked away in the quintessential Cotswolds village of Barnsley, just four miles from Cirencester, this honey-hued, Grade II-listed 17th-century house sits within Rosemary Verey's beautiful Arts and Crafts gardens, with its own village pub just opposite.

Inside, expect cosy nooks, roaring fires and rolling hill views, alongside generous Kitchen Garden food and a little spa time for the ultimate laid-back Cotswolds escape. The Village Pub, just across the road, offers an additional 6 bedrooms and an alternative F&B option as part of your events program.

Perfect for smaller get-togethers, the spaces here are intimate, relaxed and full of Cotswolds charm. Rosemary's Hideaway offers a tucked-away private room beside the gardens, The Snug is ideal for cosy team sessions or drinks by the fire, and The Restaurant provides a warm, welcoming backdrop for long, sociable suppers.

Think intimate celebrations and small meetings with local food and that easy-going PIG hospitality at the heart of it all.
