

THE PIG - in the Wall

Southampton | Hampshire

About

A little bit higgledy-piggledy and the smallest in the litter, THE PIG-in the wall is tucked within the old medieval walls of this south coast city centre, just 90 minutes from London.

All about relaxed deli-dining, furnished with rustic wooden tables and chairs, low sofa seating, a roaring log burner and plenty of comfy corners in the open plan lounge. Being nestled in historic Southampton, this little city-centre bolthole is yours to enjoy as a characterful base for making the most of the south coast and its surroundings.

Whilst there are no event spaces, you will find cosy corners and areas to gather for small groups. 12 bedrooms with vintage finds, reclaimed materials and romantic touches, each of the rooms promises a unique and restful stay. Combine this with dining up to 20 in the Deli and its fabulous location this could be the perfect exclusive use option for a smaller incentive group.
