

THE PIG - at Bridge Place

Canterbury | Kent

About

Charmingly eclectic hotel in Kent's Garden of England under an hour from London. This 17th-century red-brick hideaway with secret staircases, cosy corners and a house that hums with rock-n-roll history. Led Zeppelin, The Kinks and The Yardbirds all played early gigs here! Look forward to a stay full of character, with seasonal feasts drawing on the freshest home grown produce from our Kitchen Garden.

Surrounded by land and private garden this venue lends itself perfectly or festival style outdoor events and with 31 bedrooms the perfect exclusive use option.

Tucked just off the main Restaurant, the Chef's Table seats 18–24 and is semi private, so you get all the buzz and atmosphere without missing a beat. For gatherings with colleagues, some of the lounges can be privatised and will immediately create a relaxed and comfortable meeting environment.
